SEN INFORMATION REPORT

Cardinal Hume Catholic School
Old Durham Road
Gateshead
Tyne and Wear
NE9 6RZ

As part of the Children and Families Bill 2014, all schools are required to provide a Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Information Report to parents. This report details how the school can support children and young people with Special Educational Needs and/or Disabilities.

At Cardinal Hume Catholic School we support and value the abilities of all our pupils. It is our duty to provide equal opportunities for every person in our care and a safe and fully equipped learning environment which caters to the needs of every child as an individual. We are committed to inclusion within the school curriculum and participation in all aspects of school life. We pay close regard to the three key principals of inclusive education:

- Setting suitable learning challenges.
- Responding to pupil's diverse learning needs.
- Overcoming potential barriers to learning and assessment for individuals and groups of pupils.

Admission arrangements for pupils with SEND

- Cardinal Hume caters for pupils of all abilities, including those with identified learning difficulties and disabilities.
- If you would like your child to attend Cardinal Hume, you should discuss the suitability of Cardinal Hume as a secondary placement with their current school and participate in a review with any professionals who work with your child. At the review meeting, yourself and the professionals involved will discuss possible next steps or you may wish to contact the SEN department of your local authority. They will then advise you on what steps should be taken. The local authority will sign post parents to schools that can meet the needs of their child.
- Parents/carers are welcome to visit Cardinal Hume and this is especially important before making a decision about a placement. If you make a decision about the school you would like your child to attend, you should inform the Local Authority of your first choice of school. Once the placement is agreed, we will work with you to support your child during the transition period.

1. The kinds of special educational needs for which provision is made at the school

Cardinal Hume Catholic School is a mainstream school catering for pupils of all abilities in Year 7 to Year 13, including those with identified learning difficulties who have an Educational Health Care Plan and those who are on their school's Special Needs register at time of transfer. Cardinal Hume Catholic School currently provides support for pupils with a wide range of special educational needs (SEN) and disabilities including physical disability, visual and hearing impairment, global, moderate and specific learning difficulties, speech, language and communication needs and autism. We believe in the potential of all our pupils and we strive to ensure that every pupil is successful in achieving their own personal goals.

2. Information about the school's policies for the identification and assessment of pupils with special educational needs

The school's SEN policy and the arrangements for supporting pupils with SEN is fully compliant with the regulations of the 2014 Children and Families Act and the Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice 0-25 Years, June 2014. The SEN policy is available on the school's website. Identification of new pupils transferring from primary school is through routine data collection and information from feeder school SENCo's, class teachers, external agencies (if appropriate) and parents / carers prior to transfer. At the beginning of the school year, pupils in Year 7 are given a reading test to assess their reading age. These tests are marked and analysed by the SEN Department and the results are used with existing information, including KS2 data, to inform support arrangements. School is aware that needs may change over time and that additional needs may be identified within the context of a secondary school which did not present themselves in the much smaller environment of primary school. Concerns about a pupil having SEN can be raised by any member of staff, any parent or the pupil themselves. Any concerns regarding pupils with special educational needs is made directly to the SENCo. An initial assessment will be made if required which may lead to further specialist testing before a decision regarding additional support is made and the addition of the pupil to the school's SEN register. Parents will be fully informed of any decisions made.

The progress of pupils is closely monitored through three 10 week modular tests in all subject areas as well as on-going observations in the classroom, feedback from teaching staff and through the marking of classwork and homework.

3. Information about the school's policies for making provision for pupils with special educational needs (whether or not pupils have an EHCP)

(a) The school evaluates the effectiveness of its provision for SEN pupils through:

- Re- assessment of reading age via reading tests at the end of Year 7 to measure progress.
- Use of modular assessment data, lesson observations, case studies, book scrutiny, staff liaison and marking to measure progress in the classroom. The English, Maths and Science modular results of pupils with special educational needs are entered onto the Learning Support Outcomes Data Base and Provision Map.
- Senior Leadership (SLT) monitoring & evaluation procedures including pupil case studies and scrutiny of work across all subject departments.
- Discussion with teachers
- Discussion with pupils
- Parental consultation and feedback

(b) The school's arrangements for assessing and reviewing the progress of pupils with special educational needs:

- The progress of pupils is closely monitored through the school's three ten week Modular Tests in all subject areas. Teacher assessed grades for pupils in KS3 and KS4 are available following each ten week Modular Test. Modular Test results for pupils with SEN are accessed by the SEN Department and feed directly into the Outcomes Data Base and Provision Map. The results are analysed and should further intervention be required this will be addressed. Pupils will be removed from the register if significant progress is made. Any pupils failing to make expected progress are discussed by the SEN department and intervention strategies are agreed upon on an individual basis.

- All pupil progress is continuously monitored by teaching staff across all departments via monitoring of classwork and homework.
- Modular reports are produced after every 10 week modular test.
- Parents' Evenings are held throughout the year for all pupils. The SENCo is also available for consultation at these times.
- Learning Support parents evenings.
- SEN review meetings.
- Additional annual reviews take place for pupils with an Education Health Care Plan (EHCP). Parents/carers of pupils who have an Education Health Care Plan (EHCP) are invited to attend their child's annual review meeting to discuss progress and be involved in target setting with appropriate intervention strategies to help the pupil both in school and at home. Every pupil is offered the opportunity to express their opinion and views are taken into consideration and given due weight according to their age. Pupils are encouraged where possible in the decision making process including setting targets. All relevant teaching staff are asked for feedback on the pupil prior to the review taking place.
- A small number of pupils may require closer monitoring. This could be in the form of classroom observations by the SENCo, contact with parents through the pupil planner, telephone contact and letters as appropriate.
- Cardinal Hume Catholic School operates a house system and all pupils are assigned to a House. Heads of House oversee the pastoral care of pupils in school and may invite parents to attend meetings in school to discuss the progress of their child. Whenever necessary, the SENCo will also be in attendance at such meetings.

(c) The school's approach to teaching pupils with special educational needs:

- At Cardinal Hume Catholic School, where a pupil has been identified as having SEN, we will take action to remove barriers to learning and put effective special educational provision in place. Recommendations and strategies to enable access to the curriculum are made by the SENCo.
- All pupils are taught in mainstream classes, however the size of lower ability classes, which may include pupils identified as having SEN, are kept small and some withdrawal sessions are available.
- All subject teachers will differentiate work to match the needs of all pupils in their class in order to enable them to access the curriculum more successfully. They employ a range of creative teaching strategies to engage learners in all areas of the curriculum.
- The SENCO collaborates with Heads of Department and pastoral colleagues to ensure that learning for all pupils is given equal priority and that available resources are used to maximum effect. Effective ways of overcoming barriers to learning and sustaining effective teaching through the analysis and assessment of pupils' needs is done through monitoring the quality of teaching and standard of pupils' achievements and by setting targets for improvement.

- Information on individual pupils with SEN is provided by the SENCO via the SEN Register. All teaching and support staff have access to this register which is held electronically in a secure SEN folder on the school's IT network and it is regularly updated. It includes relevant information on the nature of an individual pupil's special educational need.
- Additional literacy and numeracy programmes

(d) How the school adapts the curriculum and learning environment for pupils with special educational needs:

- Teaching - differentiation of resources and learning materials by the subject teacher with support from the SENCo/LSAs where needed.
- In-class Support – the SEN department's Learning Support Assistants offer in-class support to identified pupils or groups of pupils across a range of subject areas.
- 1:1 and small group Intervention - literacy and numeracy programmes designed to support pupil attainment are specifically aimed at pupils who are working below the expected level for their age group.
- Specialist Equipment - if appropriate, specialist equipment may be given to the pupil, e.g. wobble cushions, pen/pencil grips, easy-grip scissors etc.
- Assistive technology – pupils who are visually impaired have access to specialist equipment such as e-readers, electronic visualizers and adapted laptops to use in the classroom. Those pupils with a severe hearing impairment have H.I. equipment such as portable FM transmitters.
- Physical Environments - the pupil entrance to the school is accessed via a flat concrete surface to enable easy access. The school is a modern building, set on a number of levels. There are lifts on both sides of the building and at least 1 accessible toilet is located on each floor. There are adjustable desks in classrooms to accommodate wheel chair access and fire refuge points for those pupils with a physical disability.

(e) Additional support for learning that is available to pupils with special educational needs:

- Provision is allocated according to need and follows the "Assess, Plan, Do and Review" process laid down in the revised Code of Practice 2014.
- Additional literacy and numeracy support is provided via 1:1 and small group intervention
- Accelerated reader programme - the accelerated reader programme enables pupils of all ages and abilities to master essential reading skills.
- Access to a range of reading materials - the SEN Department have built up an extensive library over the years which can be accessed by any pupils in Key Stage 3 and Key Stage 4.
- Handwriting intervention - intensive handwriting intervention from SEN teachers and Learning Support Assistants aimed at improving the handwriting of pupils with handwriting difficulties.
- Study Support sessions - Learning Support Assistants are involved in after school study support sessions across subject areas to support those pupils with additional needs.

- Assistance during examinations - access arrangements/exam concessions are set in place for those pupils in Year 10 and 11 sitting public examinations and who qualify for such support. Parents are made fully aware of any arrangements set in place.
- Internal assessments - teaching staff have the flexibility to make arrangements as appropriate for pupils in their classes sitting modular tests.
- Outside Agencies – the SEN Department works closely with outside agencies such as the Educational Psychological Service, Hearing Impairment and Visual Impairment Service in order to provide appropriate support to those pupils with additional needs in these areas.

(f) Activities that are available for pupils with special educational needs in addition to those available in accordance with the curriculum:

Pupils with Special Educational Needs are encouraged to participate in all school activities. It is a requirement that all extra- curricular activities provided by school must cater for pupils with special educational needs.

- Homework clubs - homework clubs are in place to support pupils who struggle to complete work outside of school. A lunchtime homework club is available for Key Stage 3 pupils Monday to Friday. A homework club is available for Key Stage 4 pupils after school every Monday and Wednesday.
- Games Club – the learning support games club is available for Key Stage 3 pupils after school every Monday.
- Craft Club – the learning support craft club is available for KS3 pupils after school every Thursday.
- Trips / off-site activities – every effort is made to include all pupils. Parents and carers are consulted to ensure arrangements are appropriate and all school trips are accompanied by a high ratio of adults to children. Risk assessments are put in place.

(g) Support that is available for improving the emotional and social development of pupils with special educational needs.
